

POSTPONED
to April 14!

Spring Wildflowers at Shenks Ferry

with Dan Welte
Saturday, April 14

Photos: Will Webster

Shenks Ferry, along the Susquehanna River in southern Lancaster County, is well known among local botanists and wildflower enthusiasts as a Central PA hotspot for spring ephemerals. Wildflower expert and naturalist Dan Welte will lead a trip to this special place.

Parking is limited. Carpool from Wal Mart's parking lot at the Yorkumtown Exit of I-83 in York County at 11:30 am. An East Shore meeting place may also be designated.

APPALACHIAN
AUDUBON SOCIETY
www.appalachianaudubon.org

For registration and further information, contact Dan Welte at dcmawelte@verizon.net or 717-728-0421.